

The Women's Building, Inc. Membership Form

Being a member of the Women's Building, Inc. means you belong to a community of women who have committed or contributed financial support to the Women's Building programs and services promoting the leadership of women of the Capital Region.

It means you share the vision of a safe and welcoming space for a diverse community of women of varying ages, sexual orientations, races, ethnicities, abilities and economic backgrounds. Your membership gift will support continued efforts to bring the women's community social events, arts programming, and a broad range of activities strengthening the women's community.
